High Holy Day Services Begin Monday Evening September 12

The month of Tishri ushers in the ten Days of Awe which begin on the first day with the observance of Rosh Hashanah as a Day of Remembrance and a day of the Sounding of the Shofar and close on the tenth day on Yom Kippur as a Day of Atonement.

The Services will be conducted on each of the Holy Days by Rabbi Judah Nadich and Rabbi Isaac Toubin with Cantor David Lefkowitz and Mr. Gordon Piltch and Dr. Myles Savitt serving as assistant cantors.

The Schedule of Religious Services appears on Page 2 of the Bulletin, but it is important to note that no one will be seated during the chanting of the Kol Nidre, which begins promptly at 6:30 p.m., and during the delivery of the sermons at 10:30 a.m. on each of the mornings of Rosh Hashanah and at 11:00 a.m. on Yom Kippur.

Yom Kippur Brochure

The enclosed brochure, Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement by Rabbi Judah Nadich has been distributed to over 500,000 Jewish and Christian Military personnel.

Selihot Service

Saturday, September 3

The Selihot Service which serves as an introduction to the High Holy Day season and as a preparation of worshipers to experience the exalted moments of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur will be held on Saturday evening, September 3, at 10:00 p.m.

The service, conducted by Rabbi Judah Nadich and Cantor David Lefkowitz, assisted by the synagogue choir, will be preceded by a coffee hour at 9:00 p.m.

Congregants, their families and friends are invited to attend.

Sukkot Festival Begins

Monday evening, September 26

The festival of Sukkot, the Season of Rejoicing will begin on Monday evening, September 26, with services at 5:45 p.m. and will continue on Tuesday, September 27, and on Wednesday, September 28, at 9:30 a.m. Kiddush will be served in the Sukkah after each of the services and on Shabbat Hol Hamoed Sukkot, Friday, September 30, and Saturday, October 1.

A Message For The New Year

Historians tell us that twenty years mark the span of a generation. It is now twenty years that we have been together and we are now embarking on our twenty-first year of the exciting work of keeping our congregation alive and growing, thriving and effective. The temptation to look back is always a powerful one; and we are most fortunate in having a rich and colorful history. But anniversaries and milestones are better marked by moments of sober self-appraisal; by judgments made in sobriety and wisdom; by dreaming new dreams and seeing new visions in the future.

The two words most associated with Conservative Judaism are Tradition and Change. We at Park Avenue have great traditions which have persisted during these twenty years. But, at the same time, there have been many changes. Changes brought about by a growing awareness of and appreciation for the Tradition and a greater love of and commitment for the beauty of our faith; a rediscovery of our ancient and ever meaningful teachings and insights. I feel with justifiable pride that the young people in our schools whose numbers increase each year, are discovering truths and gaining a storehouse of knowledge that will be their precious possession all their lives.

As we enter the next generation, let us strengthen one another in our common enterprise. Let our new building rise quickly and stand proudly as a symbol of the pride, the dignity and the inner strength which have been our people's hallmark for many generations.

And for the new year, I pray for your health, well-being and fulfillment in every way. May this truly be a Happy New Year in every possible sense of the word.

Judah Nadich

The Officers of the Congregation and the Board of Trustees extend to all the congregation good wishes for a happy, healthful and peaceful New Year

Gala Ball November 6

Outstanding Social Event

To Be Held at Plaza Hotel

Exciting plans are underway to make the Gala Dinner-Dance scheduled for Sunday evening, November 6, at the Plaza Hotel an outstanding social event. The committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Nathan Goldman and Mrs. Harold Tompkins has arranged the details which will insure a jubilee celebration. We hope that you have planned your table guests over the summer and will send in your reservation card which will be mailed to you early in the fall.

Party Favors Needed

To add to the enjoyment of the evening and to serve as a remembrance of the Gala Ball, the committee asks those who have contacts to write the chairpersons at the synagogue office if they can acquire favors. You can be sure that the committee will be most appreciative of your help.

Rally Meeting of Committee

Committee members are asked to reserve Tuesday, September 20, 7:30 p.m. for an after-dinner rally and invitation envelope-stuffing meeting at the home of Mrs. Nathan Goldman, 778 Park Avenue.

A Lulav and Etrog

Congregants who would like to purchase a lulav and etrog for Sukkot may do so by phoning the Rabbi's secretary, Mrs. Norma Daub, EN 9-2600 and the order will be placed for them.

Services For High School Seniors and College Students

A special service is being scheduled for high school seniors and college students. The service which will follow a traditional format will be conducted by Mr. Peter Geffen, principal of the High School Department. The service will take place in Room 204 of the Milton Steinberg House. On the first two days of Rosh Hashanah and on Yom Kippur, the service will begin at 10:30 a.m. Kol Nidre will begin at 6:00 p.m.

The High School service (for students in grades 8-11) which will be held in the library will be conducted by a committee of high school students under the supervision of Mr. Larry Zelnick, a member of the Park Avenue Synagogue High School faculty. These services will take place as follows: Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur beginning at 10:30 a.m.; Kol Nidre at 6:00 p.m.

Registration for the Religious School for 1977-78 now in progress.

New Member Campaign

The Membership Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lederman asks you to invite friends and neighbors, who are not affiliated with a synagogue, to worship with us, attend our many functions and learn for themselves the advantage of joining Park Avenue Synagogue.

The Membership Drive which will continue until there is standing room only is the major responsibility of every congregant.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lederman urge every congregant to take a personal interest in inviting new members to our synagogue.

Please refer names of interested persons to Mr. Martin Leichtling, executive director, at the synagogue office, EN 9-2600.

Congratulations

The congregation is happy to extend congratulations to:

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cats upon the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Diane, to Allen Brandt

Mrs. Harry Kohn upon the forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Carole, to Richard Young

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider upon the birth of their grandson, Robert Andrew Bruckner, son of Dr. and Mrs. Bennett Bruckner

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Silbert upon the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Terry Frances, to Howard A. Leipzig

Condolences

Park Avenue Synagogue extends heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved of our congregation and their families:

Mr. Samuel Edel'nan upon the death of his sister, Frances Black

Mr. Mayer Feldman upon the death of his wife, Anna B. Feldman

Mr. Bernard Gordon upon the death of his mother

Mr. Jerrold Hirsch upon the death of his mother

Dr. Philip Strax upon the death of his father, Jacob Strax
